Re: In re Veeco Instruments Inc. Securities Litigation;
MDL No. 7:05-MD-01695 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

We are counsel to Veeco and other defendants in the action referred to above. I write to request a modest extension of the briefing schedule relating to the Plaintiff's class certification motion. Counsel for Plaintiff has informed us that Plaintiff does not oppose this request.

During our conference before the Court on October 6, 2005, you directed defendants to submit any brief in opposition to class certification within the twenty-day period following Plaintiff's filing of its Consolidated Amended Complaint on November 7, 2005. See 10/6/05 Hearing Tr. at 7-8. We request that the Court allow us an additional three weeks in order to ascertain whether we should oppose Plaintiff's motion for class certification. Under this proposed schedule, by December 19, 2005, Defendants would either file an opposition to Plaintiff's motion for class certification, or stipulate to the certification of the class.

In an attempt to complete discovery on the Court's original schedule, Defendants sent a request for production of documents to Plaintiff under cover letter dated November 1, 2005. On November 16, 2005, Plaintiff produced twelve pages of documents in response to our document request.

In addition to requesting production of documents, we requested that Plaintiff make a representative from the Steelworkers and its investment advisor available for deposition on November 21, 2005. On November 18, 2005, counsel for Plaintiff informed us that they do not represent Steelworkers' investment advisor and would not be able to make any witnesses available for deposition on November 21.

In light of our efforts to date, as well as the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, we believe that this request for an extension is reasonable. We expect to be able to resolve any outstanding issues relating to our document requests prior to December 19, 2005, as well as take a limited amount of deposition testimony.

We are grateful for the Court's attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

DEFENDANTS' UNOPPOSED MOTION TO EXTEND BRIEFING SCHEDULE ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR CLASS CERTIFICATION

Pursuant to Rule 6(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendants Veeco Instruments Inc., Edward H. Braun, John F. Rein, Jr. and John P. Kiernan request an short extension of time within which to complete class certification discovery, and if necessary, file an opposition to Plaintiff's motion for class certification.

On October 6, 2005, the Court held an Interim Pretrial Conference during which it directed the parties to complete class certification discovery within the twenty-day period following Plaintiff's filing of its Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint. Plaintiff filed a Consolidated Amended Class Action Complaint on November 7, 2005, which means that Defendants' current deadline to complete class discovery and file any opposition to Plaintiff's motion for class certification is November 28, 2005.

In an attempt to complete discovery on the Court's original schedule, Defendants sent a request for production of documents to Plaintiff under cover letter dated November 1, 2005 – six days before the filing of the Consolidated Amended Complaint. On November 16, 2005, Plaintiff produced twelve pages of documents in response to Defendants' document request.

In addition to requesting production of documents, Defendants requested that Plaintiff make a representative from the Steelworkers Pension Trust ("Steelworkers") and its investment advisor available for deposition on November 21, 2005. On November 18, 2005, counsel for Plaintiff informed us that they do not represent Steelworkers' investment advisor and would not be able to make any witnesses available for deposition on November 21.

In light of our efforts to date, as well as the upcoming Thanksgiving holiday, Defendants respectfully request an extension to December 19, 2005 to complete class action discovery and file an opposition to Plaintiff's motion for class certification. Defendants expect to be able to resolve any outstanding issues relating to their document requests prior to December 19, 2005, as well as take a limited amount of deposition testimony. Counsel for Plaintiff has informed Defendants that they do not oppose this request for a brief extension.

DATED: November 21, 2005
